I understand that as a sponsor, it is my sole responsibility to pay the tuition as outlined in ACCS Board Policies by the due date, which will be provided in an invoice, and I agree with Ingram State Technical College's dis-enrollment policy which states that if I "fail to make payment as agreed, the student's registration will be canceled." I further understand that should I fail to pay by the due date to be provided in an invoice, that the student forfeits any right to claim credit for any course(s) in which he/she is now enrolled. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under the applicable programs of the U.S. Department of Education. Due to FERPA, we must have your authorization on file before we can discuss your student profile with others who are not otherwise privy to your information. Persons who can receive information about your financial aid/ student account profile is listed above.
